

Can you use what you've learned in this chapter?

Can you ask for information?
p. 102

- 1 How would you ask ...
1. the location of a place?
  2. what it's like?
  3. what attractions there are?
  4. what the weather is like?

Can you describe a place? p. 102

- 2 How would you describe your state? Tell ...
1. where it's located.
  2. what's in the north, south, east, and west.
  3. how big it is in relation to others.
  4. what there is to do there.
  5. what there is to see there.

Can you ask for and make suggestions?
p. 106

- 3 How would you ask what there is to do in Martinique?
- 4 How would you suggest these activities to your friend?

Can you emphasize likes and dislikes?
p. 107

- 5 How would you tell someone what you really like to do ...
1. on Saturday mornings?
  2. on weekends?

- 6 How would you tell someone what you really don't like to do ...
1. on Sundays?
  2. when it's cold?
  3. at school?

Can you relate a series of events?
p. 111

- 7 How would you tell someone ...
1. what you do first thing in the morning?
  2. what you do after that?
  3. what you finally do before leaving for school?
- 8 Explain what you usually do after school.