

Can you use what you've learned in this chapter?

Can you make and respond to requests?
p. 80

- 1 How would you ask for the following items, using the verb avoir? How would you respond to someone's request for one of these items?

Can you ask others what they need?
p. 82

- 2 How would you ask your friend what he or she needs for each of these school subjects?

Can you tell what you need?
p. 82

- 3 How would you tell a friend that you need ...
1. a calculator and an eraser for math?
 2. a binder and some sheets of paper for Spanish class?
 3. some pens and a notebook for English?
 4. a pencil and a ruler for geometry?
 5. a backpack and a book for history?

Can you tell what you'd like and what you'd like to do?
p. 85

- 4 How would you tell your friend that you'd like ...
1. those white sneakers?
 2. this blue bag?
 3. that purple and black pencil case?
 4. to listen to music and talk on the phone?
 5. to go shopping?

Can you get someone's attention, ask for information, and express and respond to thanks?
p. 90

- 5 What would you say in a store to ...
1. get a salesperson's attention?
 2. politely ask the price of something?
 3. thank a clerk for helping you?